

Lazy Wind Curl Hair Extensions Tutorial

How long should hair extensions be pinned up?

Leave Your Hair Extension Clipped Up For As Long As Possible In order to get your hair extension curls to last as long as possible, leave the curls pinned up for as long as you can. When the time comes that you need to remove your clips and cannot leave them in any longer, slowly release each curl one by one, starting from the bottom.

Should I curl my hair extensions?

One common style you are more than likely to try is to curl your hair extensions, however, there are some do's and don'ts when it comes to curling your new hair, and getting your curls to stay all night. As standard practice, if you are applying heat to your hair extensions or your natural hair, you should always be using a heat protection spray.

How do I finish my curls?

Once all of the curls are unclipped, gently brush through your curls to finish the look. Once you are happy with the curls, use a hairspray to set the hair in place. Your finished look will be beautifully soft curls, that will last the night and won't drop out straight after you have curled them. Great item!! The hair is of HIGH quality!

How do you pinning hair extensions?

As we will be pinning the hair extensions throughout the curling process, you will need to be taking each piece of hair in sections, starting from the bottom. Using large sectioning clips to keep the hair in place. Using your barrel size of choice, take small sections of hair, and curl around the barrel.

How do you get a curl out of a hairstyle?

Taking a sectioning clip, pin the curl to the head, so that it has time to set in place. Releasing the curl at this point would cause the curl to drop out quickly, as the curl shape has not had time to fully set in, and the weight of the hair's length will pull the curl out into a wave.

How do I Section my hair extensions before curling?

Section Your Hair Extensions Before Curling As we will be pinning the hair extensions throughout the curling process, you will need to be taking each piece of hair in sections, starting from the bottom. Using large sectioning clips to keep the hair in place.
