Monocrystalline solar panels are the most cost-effective option. Perovskite panels are more efficient and will be on the market soon. Thin film panels are the cheapest, most versatile choice. It's confusing enough trying to find solar panel prices, never mind choosing between the different types of solar panels to pick the right one for your home.

The solar modules absorb daylight and through the photovoltaic process generate electricity. This electricity can typically reach 600 volts DC and needs to be converted by the inverter to match the power supplied to your house from the electricity grid (which is usually 230 volt AC in the UK).
